

Debrief Guidance

The Debrief Record Sheet can be used to capture learning from debrief with your supervisor. It can be used to identify learning needs or cases to suggest for case-based discussion. It would then be good practice to write a reflective learning log regarding what you have learned and the impact on your practice.

Tutorial Guidance

The Tutorial Record and Tutorial Evaluation form can be used to record the educational information from a tutorial/learning experience. It can be useful in identifying further learning needs. It would then be good practice to write a reflective learning log regarding what you have learned and the impact on your practice.
